

ACADEMIC STANDING STATUS

A student is in Good Standing after each fall/spring/summer/winter term with overall GPA ≥ 2.0 .

Each fall or spring semester that a student falls out of Good Standing begins 1st Academic Probation in the flowchart below. Nothing on the flowchart applies to a student in Good Standing.

Legend:

\geq : greater than or equal to
 \leq : less than or equal to

Notes:

- "term" refers to fall or spring except in the case of "first term back" from suspension, which also includes summer and winter.
- A summer or winter term GPA changes probationary academic status only if it returns a student to Good Standing.
- A student can take no more than 16 credits during a fall or spring term on probation or just returning from suspension.
- A student with term GPA < 2.0 and overall GPA ≥ 2.0 is placed on Academic Warning without note on the transcript. (Transcript shows Good Standing.)
